

Teaching Outlines from Things to Come by J Dwight Pentecost

“God, the architect of the ages, has seen fit to take us into his confidence concerning his plan for the future and has revealed his purpose and program in detail in the Word. A greater body of Scripture is given to Prophecy than any other one subject, for approximately one fourth of the Bible was prophetic at the time it was written. That portion is devoted to the unfolding of God’s program. Because of its prominence in Scripture it is only natural that much should have been written on the subject, and many excellent books have appeared dealing with prophetic subjects. However, the treatment of Prophecy has generally been either apologetic or expository, and the themes have been developed individually apart from the relation to the whole revealed program so that much of our knowledge has been fragmentary and unrelated. There is been little attempt to synthesize the whole field of Prophecy into a unified biblical doctrine and there is a great need for a synthetic study and presentation of biblical prophecy. In an effort to meet this need the author has attempted in this volume to synthesize the Prophetic Scriptures into a systematic and complete biblical eschatology.” J. Dwight. Pentecost
